VERY PRETTY WAS WEDDING

MISS MILDRED SOULE AND
WM. K. COOLIDGE UNITED
YESTERDAY.

STATELY HOME PRESENTED VERY CHARMING SCENE

MR. AND MRS. VANCULIN EN-
TERTAIN NEXT TUESDAY
FOR MR. NASH.

Daughters of Confederacy Meet Tomorrow Morning With the President, Mrs. Koger.

Very beautiful and largely attended was the wedding yesterday afternoon of Miss Mildred Loving Soule of this city and Mr. William Kirkham Coolidge of Memphis, Tenn. The ceremony was performed at 3 o'clock at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Leslie Soule on North Fifth near Harrison street, Rev. T. J. Newell of the Broadway Methodist church officiating.

The elegant residence was a scene of great beauty and attraction, the spacious hall and parlors being artistically decorated with a graceful arrangement of white chrysanthemums and Southern smilax. A pink and green hue predominated in the dining hall, where from the chandelier dropped to the four corners of the table pink tulle, while pink carnations and ferns filled the bride's basket that formed the centerpiece. The cover was white open work over green.

Mrs. Samuel H. Winstead rendered the bridal march which accompanied entrance of the attendants, Misses Julia Dabney and Lucette Soule, who looked beautiful in white and pink organdies, each carrying carnations of a pink tinge. The little ladies were followed by the happy pair, the accomplished and beautiful young bride looking very sweet and attractive in an elaborate gown of Alice-blue with lake trimmings and yoke. The bride's roses carried were in a shower bouquet. In presence of many friends there was performed the impressive ceremony linking together the lives and hearts of the pair.

Following the nuptials the newly married pair entertained with a wedding reception of much elaborateness. In the parlors the following received: Mrs. Nelson Soule, Mrs. Leslie Soule, Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge, Dr. and Mrs. Newell, Dr. W. E. Cave, Mrs. Loving West, Memphis; Miss Reed Watt, of Frankfort; Miss Lucette Soule, Miss Julia Dabney, Mrs. H. S. Wells, Mrs. H. P. Sights, Miss Mary Cave, Miss Sadie Smith.

In the hall they were assisted by Mesdames Hal S. Corbett and Eli G. Boone, while at the dining room door Mesdames Linneus Orme and Harris Rankin greeted the concourse. Mesdames A. S. Dabney, Charles Emery, and Misses Kathleen Whitefield, Happy Newell, Mary Linn and Mary Ferriman assisted in the dining hall, where the pink and green color scheme continued into the dainty refreshments served.

Misses Ella B. Wilhelm and Elizabeth Atkins were in charge of the "Bride's Book."

Last evening the happy pair left for Chicago and other Northern points on their bridal tour which closes with their arrival next week at Memphis, where they take up their home.

The bride is one of the city's sweetest and most prominent of the girls in the younger set, being blessed with much beauty and grace of manner, and with beauty and grace of manner. She comes of one of Kentucky's first families, being a granddaughter of the late Hon. Nelson Soule, Paducah's pioneer druggist during life, who was associated in business with the bride's father the late Dr. Leslie Soule.

Mr. Coolidge is a leading young business man of Memphis, holding an important position with one of the big railroad systems entering that city.

The couple were the recipients of many elegant and costly gifts.

For Bridal Pair.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lindsay Van Culin, of South Sixth have issued invitations for a reception they will tender from 8 until 11 o'clock the evening of Tuesday, November 20th at their home, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Maurice B. Nash, Jr., who were married last Saturday in Louisville.

50 PEOPLE ARE ROASTING

IN WRECK NEAR VALPARAISO,
INDIANA. IT IS FEARED.

B. & O. TRAINS IN HEAD-END COLLISION

COACHES WERE HURLED DOWN EMBANKMENT AND CAUGHT FIRE.

One Hundred and Sixty-Seven Passengers Were On the Train, 50 Unaccounted For.

Valparaiso, Ind., Nov. 12.—Fifty out of 167 immigrants who were on a Baltimore & Ohio train which collided head-on with a freight train this morning at Woodville, ten miles north of here are missing and it is believed their bodies were consumed by the fire which destroyed six coaches of the immigrant train.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—A disastrous wreck occurred today on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad at Woodville, Ind., about thirty miles from this city. Reports so far are conflicting, but the majority of them place the number of dead at five killed outright in the collision, twenty to thirty others being caught in the wreckage and burned to death, and twenty-five seriously injured. The majority of the killed and wounded are immigrants.

The accident is said to have been caused by confusion regarding signals, which allowed the immigrant train to pass a station when a freight was approaching from the opposite direction.

At Full Speed. The two trains came together at full speed and the impact wrecked both of them completely. A number of cars of the immigrant train was hurled down a ten-foot embankment and immediately caught fire. Although every possible effort was made to extricate them from the wreckage, flames spread so rapidly that this was impossible in many cases, and it is certain that fully a score were burned to death before aid could be given them. It is known that five of the immigrants were killed outright, and the engineer of the emigrant train was so badly injured that his recovery is impossible.

Woodville is a small station about ten miles north of Valparaiso and aid was immediately summoned from that place. A wrecking train, which was at once made up at Woodville was dispatched along the line to secure medical aid and every physician within reach was at once taken on board of the train and hurried back to Woodville. Later reports from the wreck declared that the number of dead was but five and that none of the immigrants were burned to death in the wreckage.

Many Immigrants. The colliding were express train No. 47, west-bound, made up of express and passenger cars, and freight train No. 95, east-bound. The express train had 150 passengers on board, nearly all of whom were immigrants. The railroad company gathered physicians from every available point and a wreck train from Chicago brought others. There were fifty at the scene to attend the injured. The wreck occurred on a curve and the engineers had but time to reverse their levers and jump. Five persons were killed and twenty were injured, some of whom may die.

The local officials of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad claimed later in the day that only one man was killed in the wreck, and he was an unknown Italian.

At 10:30 o'clock the B. & O. notified the physicians in charge of Mercy Hospital to prepare for the reception of forty injured persons. The train is scheduled to arrive in this city at noon.

ONLY ONE IMMIGRANT FOUND

About Forty to Forty-Five Reported Missing.

Baltimore, Nov. 12.—Advices to the B. & O. general offices here say: The collision was between a west bound immigrant train and a Chicago-New York East bound freight train. There were 135 immigrants on the passenger train. The last report says that up to 8:30 o'clock only one immigrant was found dead and as near as can be told, about forty to forty-five were missing. MANDAMUS SUIT AGAINST CITY CLERK ALONE NOW

PADUCAH DISTILLERIES COMPANY HAD OLD ACTION DIS-MISSED AGAINST CLERK AND ALDERMEN IN ORDER TO BRING IT AGAINST CITY CLERK HENRY BAILEY ALONE
ON THE GROUND THAT HE IS THE ONLY LEGALLY AU-THORIZED PERSON TO GRANT A LICENSE PERMITTING HOUSES TO SELL WHISKEY IN QUANTITIES AS SMALL AS ONE QUART.

In the circuit court yesterday the Paducah Distilleries Company withdrew the mandamus suit it instituted against the members of the aldermanic board, and City Clerk Henry Bailey of this city. The company had the litigation dismissed in order that a new suit could be brought today against Clerk Bailey only. When this second action is filed Judge Reed will take it up for consideration.

The distilleries company's saloon license was taken away from it last June because the firm used in advertising its business some literature that was objectionable. One month since the distilleries people applied to the aldermen for a license entitling the concern to sell liquor in as small quantities as one quart. The aldermen refused the application, and the distilleries company then filed a mandamus suit against City Clerk Bailey and all the eight members of the al-dermanic body to compel them to grant the concern the license. The court took up this action last week and was prepared to render an opinion, but the lawyer for the distilleries company yesterday asked the court to dismiss this suit without prejudice. The judge did this, and today the distilleries firm will file a new action, which will be against City Clerk Bailey alone, the aldermen not being included as defendants.

In taking this new step the distilleries concern contends that the city clerk alone is the legally authorized person to grant a license permitting a whiskey house to sell liquor in as small quantities as one quart. The distilleries people will set up the plea in their new litigation of today that the aldermen or councilmen do not have to ratify a quart liquor license, as has been done in the past, before it is effective, but that the mere granting of the license by the city clerk is sufficient.

MISTAKE MADE IN MAJORITY

COLONEL HENDRICK BEAT
CARTER BY 32,076 BAL-LOTS.

Through Mistake There Was Committed Sunday the Name of Councilman Crandall.

Some papers have made a mistake in this city and over the state, announcing the majority of Colonel John K. Hendrick who last Tuesday in the state democratic primary secured the party nomination for attorney-general of Kentucky over Lawyer Lillard D. Carter. By error some of the papers have published that the majority of the colonel was only 22,000, while in fact it is 32,076. This is one of the largest majorities ever gotten for any office, and speaks well for Mr. Hendrick, who is recognized everywhere as one of Kentucky's greatest attorneys.

Crandall's Name Out.

Sunday morning through these columns there was published the official count, showing the number of votes received in this city by every candidate in the general election of last Tuesday. Through an oversight, there was omitted the name of Councilman Alonzo Crandall, of the Fourth ward, who was re-elected to succeed himself. His vote was 1,293, he defeating his republican opponent by nearly 200 votes.

GOLD ORNAMENTS DUG UP

Pueblo, Mexico, Nov. 12.—A vast store of gold ornaments have been unearthed under the altar of the ancient Santo Domingo cathedral in this city. They are valued at $3,000,000. The papal delegates has been notified of the rich find.

ably have scattered over the country. The entire immigrant train of six cars was burned as were three cars in the freight train. The fireman of the freight train is dead and Fireman Culler of the immigrant train is badly hurt, and it is believed he cannot live. Engineers Wrenneman and Burke of the two trains, and Baggage-master Snyder of the immigrant train are badly injured. Both engines were turned over on the south side of the track and fell clear of the main track.

ANOTHER REPORT.

Forty-Five Persons Missing and Probably Burning.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 12.—Reports from the Baltimore & Ohio wreck at Woodville, in Laporte County, are that forty-five persons are unaccounted for and are probably burning in the wreckage. Reports are very meagre.

BE HAD UNTIL TO-MORROW.

Justice Emery Fined Mrs. Schaffer and Ulrich Beyer $5 Each for Letting Hogs Run at Large.

Yesterday was the time set by Referee Bagby of the bankrupt court, to have president E. Rehkopf of the Rehkopf Saddlery company before him for personal examination. As Mr. Rehkopf could not get up his schedule of liabilities and assets by that time, the referee continued the matter over until tomorrow morning in order to give the head of the bankrupt firm time to finish his schedule.

Sued For Lawyer's Fee.

A. L. Harper yesterday filed suit against Richard Howell for $25 claimed due as a lawyer's fee plaintiff earned for representing defendant in some litigation. Howell's crop of tobacco was attached. The suit was filed in Justice Emery's court.

Horse Attached by Law.

Justice Charles Emery yesterday had lodged with him a suit of The Tully Livery company against Willie Minnich for $33 that Tully claims Minnich owes him for stabling Minnich's horse, which was found in possession of Porter Brown near Arcadia, and levied on.

Swine Owners Fined.

Justice Emery yesterday fined Mrs. H. C. Schaffer and Mr. Ulrich Beyer $5 and costs each, because the two permitted their hogs to run at large upon the public roads in violation of the law which prohibits swine or other stock from roaming over the highways.

LAST WIDOW OF MAN IN REVOLUTION DIES.

Married Him at Age of Twenty-One—He was Then Seventy-Five Years Old.

Rutland, Vt., Nov. 12.—Mrs. Esther Sumner Damon, said to be the last widow of a soldier of the revolutionary war, died at her home in Plymouth Union at the age of 93 years. She was married in 1835 when she was 21 years old to Noah Damon, who was then 75 years of age. Damon served through the revolutionary war, having enlisted in 1775.

LIVELY SCRAP BETWEEN MEN

LAWYER EATON AND E. T.
HARVICK HAVE FISTICUFF
YESTERDAY.

FIGHT OCCURRED ABOUT WIFE'S DIVORCE SUIT

PETE O'BRYAN SURRENDERS
AND CLAIMS HE IS NOT THE GUILTY PARTY.

Adeline Morton, Negress, Contends
Bob McGee, Colored, Assaulted
Her with Baseball Bat.

Quite a lively scrap occurred shortly before 6 o'clock last evening in the main entrance to the Fraternity building between Lawyer W. V. Eaton and Mr. E. T. Harvick and during which the lawyer's lip was badly cut from the blow from the first of Harvick, while the latter was thrown down and drubbed a little by the attorney when bystanders rushed up and pulled him off.

The fight resulted from Lawyer Eaton yesterday morning filing suit in the circuit court for Mrs. Harvick, who wants a divorce from her husband, who was formerly in the grocery, then restaurant business, but now tends bar at a saloon down in the business portion of the city. She charges her husband with being cruel to her, and also with failing to support her. After the lawyer filed the action yesterday the husband went to his office and wanted Eaton to withdraw the litigation instituted on behalf of the wife. Eaton refused and just before 6 o'clock was standing just inside the main entrance of the fraternity building waiting for his law partner when Harvick rushed out of the office of Judge E. W. Whittemore the real estate dealer, and dashing up to Eaton struck the latter in the mouth. The two men clinched and Eaton about had Harvick down when others pulled him off. Harvick then rushed in the Whittemore office looking for a gun, and at this there was general scrimmage by the large crowd attracted, as all wanted to get out of danger's way. Eaton went into the Charles Jennings' real estate office, and Harvick presently came out of the Whittemore office and, picking up his hat, proceeded out the front door, warning Eaton that he would "get him yet."

Things were pretty lively for a few minutes the blows being fast and furious, but bystanders prevented much harm being done. The inside of the lawyer's lip was split by the first blow driving the flesh back against the teeth.

Two warrants were issued against Harvick, one charging him with a breach of the peace, and the other being one in which the lawyer wants Harvick put under a bond to keep the peace.

O'Bryan Surrendered.

Pete O'Bryan, a one-hand man yesterday came to the city hall and surrendered, stating he understood a warrant had been gotten out against him by a man named Guillot charging O'Bryan with robbery. The accused remained at the hall last night in order to be present this morning for an investigation in the police court. Guillot claimed several nights ago that he was drinking with some people and that when he "came to" his money was gone. O'Bryan was with him at the New Richmond bar for a while. O'Bryan went to his old home in Hamlettsburg, but hearing a warrant was gotten out for him by Guillot, he returned here and surrendered claiming he was innocent of the theft.

Nagel Burglary.

The police have not yet discovered who it was that threw the brick through the window of Nagel & Meyer's jewelry store, at Third and Broadway, early Sunday morning. Only the two watches are gone. The window has been repaired temporarily with a large pane of glass inside the broken place. A new plate has been ordered to take the place of the smashed one.

Horses Taken Up.

Lycurgus Rice, the official cow and horse catcher for the city, has two stray horses in the city pound, one being taken up at Fourteenth and Jefferson streets and the other at Eighteenth and Broadway. As soon as possible they will be sold.

Colored Couple.

A colored couple procuring a license was Henry Robinson, aged 26 of this city, and Julia Nicholas aged 25 of Illinois. They stepped into the office of Judge Lightfoot after procuring the documents, and had the ceremony performed.

OBJECT LESSON IN OLD AUTOS

Machines Built More Than a Decade Ago Parade Paris Streets.

Paris, Nov. 12.—The rapid progress made on motor construction during the past ten years was shown today in a picturesque procession of antiquated motor cars. The procession made its way from the Place de la Concorde to Sevres, about eight miles. Several hours' time was consumed. No car less than ten years old was allowed to enter. Many modern machines accompanied the old-timers and afforded an interesting comparison.

—Ella R. Harvick yesterday in the circuit court filed for divorce from her husband, Edgar Harvick, on the grounds of cruelty and non-support. She wants $5,000 alimony and custody of their child.

FOR DISPOSAL.

Furnishing Committee Will Have to
First Get Figures Before They Can Know Cost of Equipment.

Yesterday in Judge Lightfoot's court, many suits Auditor's Agent Tanner filed several weeks ago against a number of Paducah merchants and business firms came up. The judge continued the actions over until the next regular term of court, when he will dismiss the entire list, so he stated yesterday.

Tanner goes over the commonwealth bringing suits against people and firms he claims have not paid their state license under the new laws. He brought many actions in Paducah, some against hardwaremen for selling revolvers at retail without a license some against operators or pool and billiard rooms, and others against houses for different alleged licenses. Many of the firms have paid their license, others are not liable for them etc.

County Court.

Yesterday Judge Lightfoot held his session of county court, but there was nothing before him except a few estate settlements and other minor business of a similar nature.

Furnishing Committee.

This morning when the furnishing committee for the poor farm came with the chairman, Judge Lightfoot, they will outline what they need to equip the new institution, and then direct the supply houses to get in their proposals.

Property Sold.

Land in the Clark's river section of the county has been sold by Willie Travis to E. E. Sisk for $1,000, and the deed lodged in the county clerk's office yesterday.

M. S. Courtney sold to Sephus Simmons for $75 property in the Mayfield creek section of the county.

Master Commissioner Cecil Reed transferred to J. M. Richardson for $700 land on the Big Bayou creek in the county.

Master Commissioner Cecil Reed sold to Thompson, Wilson & Co. for $1,500 property on Kentucky avenue near Ninth street.

Licensed to Marry.

The clerk issued marriage licenses to the following: Wm. K. Coolidge, aged 31 and Mildred Soule, aged 17 former of Memphis and latter of Paducah; T. O. Armstrong, aged 22 of the county.

Colored Couple.

A colored couple procuring a license was Henry Robinson, aged 26 of this city, and Julia Nicholas aged 25 of Illinois. They stepped into the office of Judge Lightfoot after procuring the documents, and had the ceremony performed.

OF BIG PLANT WAS WAIVED IS REDUCED

MR. EDWARD WILLIAMS HERE ENROUTE TO MONTEREY, MEX., TO LOCATE.

Mr. Blecker Will Look After All the Stone and Webster Properties.

Mr. Edward Williams is here for a few days visiting his father, Capt. Mike Williams, of the marine ways. The former has been residing at Birmingham, Ala., for several years, being the superintendent of a large rolling mill there, but now goes to Monterey, Mexico, to assume the management of a similar industry, at a handsome salary. Although only 25 years of age, he is an energetic and sterling young business man who has been superintending these plants for several years. He will leave here in a few days for his new place.

Mr. W. T. Sturdivant has gone to Boston, Mass., to remain at the headquarters of Stone & Webster, who own the street car, light and heating plants here. Mr. Sturdivant was superintendent of the gas and electric lighting plants while here. General Manager John Blecker of the entire industries will hereafter look after these departments as well, in addition to all the others. He will probably have as assistant Mr. Sweetzer, who was chief clerk to Mr. Sturdivant. Mr. Sweetzer is now confined in a private ward at Riverside hospital with slow fever.

Build New Bank.

The contract for the new bank building at Haardin has been let to Contractor J. L. Richards of Trevaunt, Tenn., who puts up the structure for $1950. It will be two stories high and constructed on modern plans, with corner entrance and arched glass front. The contract calls for completion of the building in thirty days.

Forwarding Material.

Contractor George Weikel of this city is now forwarding carload after carload of brick, sand and other material to Clarksville, Tenn., where he goes the last of this week or first of next to start off the work upon the huge branch factory he is to erect for the American Smelt company, at a cost of $500,000. After he gets the construction work well under way he will leave his foreman there constantly to superintend the things, while Mr. Weikel returns here to look after his other contracts. He will go down to Clarksville about every thirty days to see how things are coming on.

Political Integrity Wins.

Over in Kansas two years ago President Roosevelt carried the state by 126,000 majority, and Hoch was elected governor by nearly 70,000 majority. During the two years of his administration he did not live up to expectations and therefore his re-election is in doubt. It is the one healthful sign of the times that a people of any state can so far forget party lines as to do exact justice to the good and the bad official.

Gov. Johnson of Minnesota was elected as a Democrat two years ago. Minnesota is strongly Republican. Gov. Johnson made good. He did his duty. He kept the faith. As a consequence the people have this year re-elected him and by a largely increased majority. In the cases of both Hoch and Johnson, it was not the party which won or lost, it was the official, the individual. Had Johnson failed, he would have been re-elected. Had Hoch been true his election would have been overwhelming. Friends of the republic, honest citizens, have little to feel sorrowful over, for long, in Tuesday's results.

DIVIDEND IS 950 PER CENT

Directors of New York State Bank Vote to Distribute Surplus.

New York, Nov. 12.—The directors of the State bank, this city, today declared a dividend of 950 per cent on a capitalization of $100,000. The directors also declared the usual semi-annual dividend of 50 per cent. The large surplus the bank amassed became unwieldy because of its small capitalization and in order to obviate this the directors decided to distribute the surplus in the form of a dividend. It also was decided to increase the capitalization of the bank from $100,000 to $1,000,000.

Quite a Lively Tussle.

Up in Brown county, Kansas, a man annoyed his neighbor by leaving a gate open, and finally the neighbor said if it happened again the man who did it would get a whipping. So when the gate was again left open he went after the offender. When he came back he was pretty well bruised up. "Did you whip him?" asked his wife. "No," he said, "but it was all he could do to whip me."—Kansas City Star.

He is charged with walking into the store of his competitor, W. R. Short, on lower Kentucky avenue and opening fire with his revolver at the latter. Barney and W. M. Padgett were given continuances until tomorrow of the warrant charging them with furnishing liquor to a boy under legal age. The lad is Eddie Skillian. James Porter was fined $1 and costs for having a fight with Henry Robinson at the Tom Emery saloon on lower Kentucky avenue. Mack McKinney was put under $300 bond, which he will have to pay if he does not keep the peace toward his wife, Sarah McKinney. He was arrested Saturday night for abusing her.

Oscar Glorah was fined $1 and costs for being drunk. George Koger was dismissed of the disorderly conduct charge, provided he left the city immediately and never returned.

A People's Triumph.

(Memphis News-Scimitar.) Congressman Wadsworth, chairman of the committee on agriculture, was elected two years ago by a plurality of 13,036. Tuesday he was defeated by a plurality for Porter of 16,638. He had for many terms represented his district. He is a man of great wealth, extensive family connection and ability. His son is speaker of the New York house of representatives. During the last session of congress he came up for criticism during the discussion of the meat packers' scandal. His remarks were not in accord with public sentiment, and though defended most eloquently by the Democratic floor leader, Hon. John Sharp Williams, and others, the finger of suspicion could not be diverted from him as its target. He went before the people, and the result is now history. His strength was as Sampson's after the female barber had clipped his beard. He couldn't break the mythes which public censure and condemnation had put upon his wrists, and he was kicked out. He won't even have the satisfaction of pulling down the temple of those who have repudiated him.

THIRTY FOUR MEN SWEAR THEY VOTED FOR HAYS

Only Eight Votes Counted for Him—Feeling Strong in Fulton.

Fulton, Ky., Nov. 12.—Alleging that gross frauds have been perpetrated by the officers of the state primary election, thirty-four prominent men of this place made affidavit before a notary that in one precinct where Hays only secured eight votes, according to the count, they had all voted for him. After making affidavit, a petition of protest was filed at the county seat by the same men. The officers of the election are highly prominent men of the city and indignantly deny any charges of fraud and claim that they will recover damages if action is taken against them. Feeling is high on account of the seriousness of the matter and several difficulties have narrowly been averted.

John Calvin Welling Dead.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—John Calvin Welling, for many years first vice president of the Illinois Central railroad, died Saturday night at his home here. He had been suffering from acute bronchitis for three weeks.

Mr. Welling, who was born at Pennington, N. J., in 1849, started his railroad career with the Illinois Central when 34 years old. He began at the bottom and worked his way up through various positions until in 1890 he was elected vice president, which position he held until his death.

IN NEXT HOUSE REPUBLICANS WILL HAVE MAJORITY OF SIXTY.

Democratic Gains in States in Which Republicans Were Elected Two Years Ago.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—Revised returns indicate that the Republicans will have control of the next House of representatives by a majority of about 60, a reduction of 52 from the majority of the present house. The Democrats made their gains principally in the states in which the Republican representatives were elected in the Roosevelt landslide of two years ago.

While the returns show that Speaker Cannon, against whom Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, made a strong fight, is elected by his usual majority, there will be many familiar faces missing on the Republican side. Chief among those who will be missed are such old timers as James W. Wadsworth of the Thirty-fourth New York district, defeated by Peter A. Porter, a Democrat.

Capital's "Mayor" Defeated.

Another old-timer who will be missed is Representative Babcock of Wisconsin, who is succeeded by a Democrat. Babcock was practically mayor of Washington, being chairman of the committee on the District of Columbia. All bills for franchises, public improvements and everything else relating to the District of Columbia had to be passed on by him.

For years Mr. Babcock was chairman of the congressional campaign committee, the position now occupied by James S. Sherman of New York, who only managed to be re-elected by a greatly reduced majority. Mr. Babcock was his own collector, as chairman of the campaign committee, and admitted having obtained contributions from life insurance companies and other corporations.

That the Iowa idea was potent in at least one district in that state is shown by the defeat of Maj. John F. Lacey, who will be succeeded by a Democrat, D. W. Hamilton. Maj. Lacey is particularly known because of his efforts in getting a bill through congress protecting the song and game birds of the United States. It was because of his discovery of the original Jefferson Bible in the National museum that this interesting document was published and distributed as a public document by congress. The supply of Jefferson Bibles was quickly exhausted, as Senator Chauncey M. Depew bought them and sent them to his personal friends.

Absent After Twenty Years.

Douglas, the Republican who beat Gen. Grosvenor of Ohio for re-election, was himself defeated and the district which Gen. Grosvenor represented for twenty years will now be looked after by a Democrat.

Palmer of the Eleventh Pennsylvania, who was the chief prosecutor in the Swayne impeachment proceedings, gives way to a Democrat. "Whistler" Fulkerson, "landslide" republican from Missouri, will do his warbling henceforth in his own state, as he was defeated by a Democrat. During Mr. Fulkerson's term in Congress he distinguished himself by joining the statehood insurrection and by his whistling. During the closing days of the last session he frequently entertained the house with an exhibition of whistling.

William Thomas Tyndall of the Fourteenth Missouri, who never saw an elevator until after his election to congress, will remain at home, as will a number of his colleagues from the same state, their places all being filled by Democrats.

Fred Landis, a brother of Charles Landis, and Judge Wenesaw N. Landis, and all the other Landises, was just getting a good start in the house, but his constituents refused to re-elect him to the Sixtieth congress. His brother, Charles Landis, was re-elected.

McClary of Minnesota, who has represented the Second district for fourteen years in the house, was defeated by a Democrat. His tariff views did not meet with the approval of his constituents. He was violently opposed to revision, while a majority of his constituents apparently favored it. He was regarded as one of the strong "stand pat" Republicans on the committee on ways and means.

Subject of Interest Gone.

Spencer Blackburn, the "Adonis of the house," as he was termed before his marriage to the daughter of one of the millionaires of Washington, was always an object of interest to visitors, as he was pointed out as the only Republican congressman from North Carolina. The Democrats defeated him and he will not be in the next house. Factional differences over the distribution of patronage are responsible for his defeat.

Corporations in Politics. The following dispatch from New York indicates that the quasi-public corporations are already in politics, and in the worse sense; that is, the bank accounts and the powers of coercion of the private owners are in politics, says Memphis News-Scimitar. It would be better to have the employees in politics under public ownership.

DENIED CHANCE TO VOTE.

Street Car Employees Say They Were Compelled to Work.

New York, Nov. 6.—There was much dissatisfaction among the street car employees of Manhattan today as a result of a notice which appeared yesterday at the car bars of the New York City Railway company. The notice reads:

"No man will be excused tomorrow, November 6. Any man reporting sick, or losing his car, will be dismissed, provided circumstances warrant it. Any man losing his car will report to starter as soon as possible."

GEORGE LAIRD, "General Division Foreman." The men claim that this order denied them an opportunity to vote, as they had to be on duty at 7 o'clock this morning, and were not at liberty until after the polls closed.

Editorial Dogberrying.

(St. Louis Post-Dispatch.) The Paducah News-Democrat says: "The man who scratches any ticket should not have the right to vote."

Most assuredly not! Nothing else so threatens our political liberty as the harum-scarum voter who runs around seeking what unfit candidate he may devour. That's the boy, we have all got to head off. If someone doesn't trip him up and sit on him, the day will dawn when the political scoundrel is extinct as the roc of Sinbad and when the people will mourn with fireworks and brass bands the good old days when the bosses stood upon their necks and cried, "Thumbs up! Down! Wiggle!"

Watch out for the man who scratches his ticket. It's a barking dog where there is a job on and a ding danger when the password is "Hush!" He has an absurd notion that the people are greater than the parties and that if the party is to command his loyalty it must deserve it. Hunt sharp for this fellow, for he is a live one, and unless he is exterminated his kind will multiply upon the earth and we shall have government of and by and for the people.

Dogberry signed to be writ down a ass. Next!

He died a few days before election. He had been in the house for years and was well known and liked by Democrats and Republicans.

Bryan's Friend Victorious. William J. Bryan's editor friend, G. M. Hitchcock managed to beat out his Republican opponent in Nebraska and will come back to congress.

The New Jersey delegation will have three new Democratic members in the next house. Of course, the successor of Allan McDermott is a Democrat, but William Hughes of Paterson beat his Republican opponent and is elected to congress after having been out one term. Eugene W. Lane is a newcomer. Richard W. Parker, the Republican from the Seventh New Jersey district, squeezed through with a plurality of 320.

The next house will probably stand 163 Democrats and 223 Republicans. The Republican leaders welcome the reduction in their majority for the reason that during the present session, when it numbered 112, it could not be kept together. A "working majority," the house leaders insist, is always better for the transaction of business, as it is easier to keep a quorum and go ahead than with an unwieldy majority.

The Defeat of Hearst.

That the fight made by William R. Hearst in his late campaign for governor of New York has not been in vain, but will bear fruit to the good of the country cannot be denied.

It was one of the most terrific battles in the annals of politics. The combined wealth and influence of the powerful corporations of the East were pooled against him, yet he lost by only 50,000 votes. The discussions throughout the campaign have caused the people to think, and the republicans view the result with a feeling of uneasiness.

The New York correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal in discussing the result in a special to his paper, says:

"The great mass of people believe that it is better that Mr. Hearst be the same old Mr. Hearst in his policies and procedure than merely play a part. More than this, now that the campaign is at an end and in view of the wonderful run that Hearst made with his own party against him, there are earnest and intelligent men in New York who are doing a heap of thinking at the present time on the subject of his efforts to cause it at the polls. Much that was written on it during the past two months was for campaign purposes only. The political excitement during that period led many to discuss it in the same spirit. It is now possible for thinking men to discuss the subject in a more sober spirit."

"The election returns indefinitely postponed Hearst himself, and yet gave an impetus to his principles. This latter fact is shown by the election of all on the ticket excepting Hearst. The cause of their success is simple. They were able to poll the entire democratic vote plus the personal strength of Mr. Hearst. Much is being said now about the probability of a democratic governor also had a man other than Hearst been named. This is idle talk, however. The election returns show it. No other candidate could have run so strongly up the state in those cities where the labor vote is a factor. The bolting democrats killed Hearst."

"It has been said that Hearst has no principles, hence some may take as exception to the view that the result has given them an impetus. When the average person, however, uses the term principle in connection with Hearst, he is judging by Hearst's acts, his words, not the motives underlying them. The wonderful vote that Hearst got was a tribute to the war he has waged both in and out of season against the interference of corporations in politics and the greed of trusts. Thousands went to the polls and voted for him for no other reason. There are many republican leaders here who see the handwriting on the wall now. No one, it is said, understands the situation better in this respect than the president. The fate of the republican party in the next presidential campaign is in the hands of the coming congress. If the advanced ideas of Roosevelt on the regulation of trusts, railroads and other combinations of capital are in a measure adopted; if, also, some changes are made in the tariff schedule that tend to do away with the advantages enjoyed by 'special interests,' the republican party will be strong. But let it block the efforts of the president as it did at the last session and nothing can prevent a democrat succeeding him. Thus did New York State warn the republican party on November 6."

Chicago Republicans in Trouble.

The republicans in Chicago received more than they bargained for in the election last week. In order to catch the negro vote, they put a negro on the ticket for one of the municipal judgeships and he was elected. Now the republicans are seeking a way to get rid of the darkey. The Nashville Banner takes this view of the situation:

"Chicago has been confronted by the 'race problem' on account of the election of Fred D. Barnett, a negro, as a judge of the municipal court. Barnett was nominated on the republican ticket, for the political purpose of catching the negro vote for the ticket. His name was scratched on the ticket by over 30,000 republican voters, but notwithstanding this cut he was elected by a plurality of 495 votes over the candidate receiving the highest number of votes on the democratic judicial ticket. Since his election a clamor has been raised against Barnett, and it is said that he has been asked by the republican bosses to resign, but he insists upon taking the office to which he was elected. He says: 'The republican leaders considered the colored people constituted so important a part of the republican party in the community that they were entitled to this representation, and I was nominated as their representative.'"

"Clearly Barnett is contending within his rights and the republicans, least of all, can complain of his election. They used him for political advantage and his election entitles him to the office."

In order to prevent Milwaukee from engaging in municipal ownership of a lighting plant to supply consumers, the head of the street railway system proposes to furnish power and lights at the same rates charged the people of Detroit by that city which owns the utilities. In the proposition submitted to Milwaukee it is admitted that Detroit gets cheap light and has one of the best plants in the country. In making the proposition to Milwaukee, the corporation says it is not engaged in charitable business, but expects to make a good profit at the Detroit figures. As no private corporation in the country gives as low rates as the city of Detroit, it becomes quite apparent that municipal ownership is what the people should have. When the corporation owning the lighting franchise in Milwaukee is confronted with municipal ownership it quickly offers to cut its rates to the Detroit rate and says it can make a good profit at those figures. How much longer will it take the people of this country to reject the arguments against municipal ownership and become convinced that as water and lights are as essential to municipal life as the police and fire department that the cities should own those utilities?

TEDDY, JR., NEW "BOSS" AT WHITE HOUSE

President Sends Wireless Messages to His Son.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., who has come to Washington to run the mansion during the absence of the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, has received two wireless messages from the Louisiana in the White House. One was at 8 o'clock last night and indicated that the Louisiana was then about 145 miles east of Jacksonville, Fla. The Louisiana had evidently not gone far out east from Charleston, to avoid the scheduled storm. The latter messages from the Louisiana was received at 5 o'clock this morning and was picked up by the wireless station at Dry Tortugas. That message said:

"Weather excellent. Everything going well. Louisiana and convoys steaming southward in column. The President and Mrs. Roosevelt are greatly enjoying the trip and spend a great deal of time on deck."

Theodore junior has charge of the two younger boys and Miss Ethel, the latter going every day to the Cathedral school. The young people have tennis parties and other ways of enjoying themselves during the absence of the President and Mrs. Roosevelt. Before her marriage, Miss Alice Roosevelt used to have charge in the absence of both Mrs. Roosevelt and the President.

Mr. John Trent has returned from Water Valley, Miss.

EIGHT FOR; FOUR AGAINST

WAS HOW JURY STOOD IN CASE OF THE REGISTER AGAINST WORTEN.

Suit of Newspaper To Recover From Lawyer For Malicious Prosecution Goes Over to January.

Yesterday in the circuit court the jury in the case of James E. Wilhelm and The Register Newspaper Company against J. Mark Worten for malicious prosecution reported that they could not agree and Judge Reed discharged them.

It was learned that the jury stood eight for a verdict reimbursing Mr. Wilhelm and the company for all expenses paid in lawyers' fees, costs and loss of time amounting to $33,000, and four for a verdict in favor of Worten. At one time, it is said, nine of the jurors agreed to sign a verdict but one of them changed his mind while it was being written. The case will be tried again at the January term of the circuit court.

This case grew out of a suit instituted by J. Mark Worten as attorney for Sam Stone for $10,000 against Mr. Wilhelm and his paper for alleged libel. The article on which the Worten or Stone suit was based was in regard to the arrest of Sam Stone and warrants against his son Eldin Stone. There were two paragraphs in the article, the first about Sam Stone's arrest and the second paragraph about Eldin Stone. The second paragraph opened with these words, to wit: "In the case of Eldin Stone thereby hangs a tale. He is another one of Mark Worten's ten-thousand-dollar beauties," and then some of Eldin Stone's lockup career was given. Mark Worten in drawing the petition for the Sam Stone suit purposely omitted the language quoted above, and undertook to make it appear that the language referred to Sam Stone. This suit for $10,000 Worten brought in Livingston county and the newspaper and its owner had to go there to defend it, and a verdict was returned in their favor. Suit was then instituted in this county by Mr. Wilhelm and The Register against Worten to recover the costs to which they had been put by him counseling and bringing a suit where no reasonable grounds existed for bringing it.

The case was taken up at noon last Friday before Judge Reed. Sam Stone swore that he went to Worten to bring the suit sometime after August 30, 1904, and that he had never been to Worten's office before, and after he concluded his testimony The Register introduced Deputy Clerk Kidd, who swore that on July 8, 1904, or about two months before, Mark Worten as the attorney for Sam Stone filed a suit for $10,000 against the City of Paducah in the McCracken Circuit Court, for working his son, Eldin Stone, on the chain gang, and the papers in the suit were produced on the stand.

Worten testified that Sam Stone came to him to bring the suit. In Worten's suit for $25,000 at Smithland against The Register and its owner, it was proven that Worten sent out numerous letters to chain-gang prisoners to come to his office, and that he made contracts with a number of them to sue the city, which he had served as legal adviser, for $10,000 each; those chain-gang suits amounting in all to something like $700,000 against the city, and which were lost.

Worten on the stand Friday admitted that Sam Stone was to pay him a fee equal to one half of the sum recovered from the Register in the $25,000 suit which was lost.

SMALL BLAZES.

Meadow and Ford Establishment Damaged About $1,000.

About 5 o'clock Sunday morning fire was discovered in the store of Meadows and Ford at 728 Jones street, and a $1,000 loss occurred. The blaze started in the grocery on the first floor and damaged the stock about $700, while the building was damaged about $300. Mr. Meadows lives upstairs, and his family had to be gotten out the window by ladders run up by the firemen, their avenue of escape having been cut off by flames and smoke. Henry Foreman owns the building.

The roof of 316 Tennessee street took fire Sunday evening at 6:15 o'clock from falling soot, but was put out before any damage occurred. The residence is owned by Mr. Mike Isaman.

About 4 o'clock yesterday morning a cinder car burned in the cinder pit at the I. C. shops. The railroaders composing the private fire company extinguished the blaze.

U. S. HAS WORLD'S MOST MODERN NAVY

More Tonnage in First Class Battleships Than All Other Powers.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The claim has been made not without reason, that the existing method of getting the standing of the navies of the world is not reasonable, as "old timbers" are said to be included in foreign estimates, and that if the real, first-class fighting ships only were included, the United States would be alongside of France or second among the naval powers, instead of third, as it is now rated.

The naval experts here see, however, that it will not be before the United States can lay claim to being a good second, in first-class ships, and figures just compiled show that the United States Navy has more battleship tonnage than any other nation in the world.

Germany claims to be fourth in the rank of naval nations, with the United States third. This, of course, is based on the consideration of everything that Germany has regardless of modern fighting value.

But it is in the tonnage of battleships of the first-class now building that the United States exceeds any of the great powers. In this type of ships she is building 13,000 tons, and the only power which approaches that figure is France, with 9,540 tons.

Germany, which has a seven-year program for naval increase, is credited with only 52,800 tonnage, and Great Britain with 49,350.

Russia, who it is understood is in naval circles is to immediately begin the creation of a new navy, following up her losses in the Russo-Japanese war, is building only 58,000 tons in battleships, less than 10,000 in excess of Italy, which has a tonnage under way of 49,700.

In total tons building Great Britain exceeds the United States by a little more than 5,000 tons. The next to the United States is France, with about 16,000 tons. The total tonnage of the leading powers built and building is as follows:

Great Britain, 1,851,854; France, 702,257; United States, 737,196; Germany, 528,160; Japan, 452,391; Russia, 275,925.

Wadsworth Paid Off.

(Courier-Journal.)

In the case of Representative Wadsworth of New York the wages of sin was political death.

According to the New York Press, no one except Mr. Babcock of Wisconsin so richly deserved a trouncing as the gentleman from New York. Not only because of his record at Washington, where he overlooked an opportunity to misrepresent his constituents by opposing such measures as the beef trust bill but because of his part in "peanut politics" in New York, where he aided in gerrymandering a deserving state senator out of his seat was Mr. Wadsworth odious to republicans. Peter A. Porter, who succeeds Mr. Wadsworth, has pledged himself to work for the passage of laws for the better regulation of the beef trust, for the taxation of oleomargarine and for other popular and meritorious legislative legislation to which Mr. Wadsworth stood opposed.

The longer the people reflect upon the deserved defeat of Mr. Wadsworth the more pleasant will be their reflections. It will, unfortunately, never be as difficult for a rich man of the Wadsworth type to get into congress as for a rich man to pass through the eye of a needle, but having once proved his motives and ideals by his record, such a misrepresentative may, happily, be balloted into private life by an offended district.

The Elmira Advertiser laments the elimination of Mr. Wadsworth and refers to him as the "tower of strength in the New York delegation." The obstacle between Mr. Wadsworth and continued preferment was that his strength was that of limburger rather than that of Gibraltar.

NAVY NOW HOPES TO DEFEAT WEST POINT.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 12.—The Navy's defeat of Swarthmore on Saturday has convinced the friends of the naval team that it has an excellent chance against the army this season. Indeed, there will be disappointment in Annapolis if the midshipmen do not this season score their first victory over the army in five years.

Douglas who played his first match game of the season Saturday, having broken his leg two years ago, did splendid work and his showing is particularly pleasing, as he is one of the best backs that ever played on the Navy team. Captain Spencer is giving the coaches some care, as his knee, in which he injured the ligaments a month ago, is healing very slowly.

FIREMAN KILLED IN WRECK

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 12.—Early this morning a northbound Frisco passenger train collided with an engine standing on a curve at the edge of the city limits, killing Fireman Joseph D. Wilkerson and probably fatally injuring Engineer Robert Fowler. Three other members of the passenger crew were injured. None of the passengers was hurt.

DURING MOTHER'S FUNERAL LITTLE DAUGHTER DIED

NAOMI URBANSKI, AGED THIRTY MONTHS, BREATHED HER LAST YESTERDAY AFTERNOON WHILE THE FUNERAL OF HER MOTHER WAS BEING CONDUCTED—MRS. M. A. FRENCH PASSED AWAY AT RIPE AGE OF NINETY-THREE YEARS—JAMES T. WALBERT CAMP OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS MEETS THIS EVENING TO ARRANGE FOR FUNERAL OF THE LATE MAJOR THOMAS E. MOSS.

Very sad indeed were the circumstances surrounding the Urbansky home at 412 North Fourth street, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, as while the funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Tillie Urbansky were being held at that home, the lady's thirty months old girl, Naomi Urbansky, died at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hirschfeld of 422 North Fourth.

Mrs. Urbansky passed away last Saturday at Riverside hospital from the effects of an operation for tumor. The body was taken to their home at 412 Fourth, while at the Hirschfeld home, several doors distant, the little girl who has been suffering from bronchitis for some weeks was being given medical attention. While Rabbi Lovitch was preaching the funeral of the mother, word came from the Hirschfeld home that the little one had gone to join its parent. For fear he could not stand the double blow, Mr. Urbansky was not informed of the death of his child until after the wife's remains were interred at the Jewish cemetery. The ceremonies over the remains of the little one will be conducted this morning at 10 o'clock at the residence, Rabbi Lovitch officiating. The body will then be taken to the Jewish cemetery and laid to rest beside that of the mother.

The circumstances surrounding the incident were very touching, and something rather unusual.

Died at Advanced Age.

Sunday evening about 8 o'clock Mrs. Martha A. French passed away at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Cooper, of West Trimble street just beyond Oak Grove cemetery. Death resulted from the infirmities produced by advanced age, as the deceased had been on the decline for many months. Mrs. French was ninety-three years of age and had been making her home in this city with her daughter for quite a while. Of recent years she has been too feeble to get out much, but despite this fact had many warm friends who delighted in the comfort of her company, she being visited quite frequently by her numerous friends. She was kind and motherly, and held a warm spot in the hearts of all who knew her.

She is survived by two daughters, Mesdames Cooper and Charles Robertson, the latter wife of the well known street contractor.

The funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence by Rev. Calvin Thompson of the First Baptist church. Burial occurred at Oak Grove.

Blacksmith Died.

At 12 o'clock Sunday night Mr. Charles Taylor died of pneumonia at his home, 149 Clements street in Mechanicsburg, after a ten days' illness with pneumonia.

The young man was twenty-three years of age and is survived by his wife and parents. He was a blacksmith by occupation, well known and liked.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock the body was buried in the Sharpe neighborhood, ten miles out in the county on the Clark's river road.

THANKSGIVING ON NOVEMBER 29.

Comes On the Last Thursday of the Month This Year—Big Mistake Last Year.

This year, the same as last year, there is apt to be some misunderstanding regarding Thanksgiving Day, as there will be five Thursdays in this month. Some people believe that Thanksgiving comes on the fourth Thursday in month. Last year November had five Thursdays and some of the magazines had Thanksgiving billed for November 23rd, and others November 30th.

As a rule November has but four Thursdays, and will have but four for some time to come. However, the general rule is that Thanksgiving comes on the last Thursday, which is November 29th this year.

GENERAL SHAFER NEAR END

Soldier Is Suffering From Acute Pneumonia on California Ranch.

Bakersfield, Cal., Nov. 12.—With his life hanging on a thread and the doctors having given up all hope, Major General William R. Shafter, U. S. A., retired, is making a heroic struggle against death at the ranch of Captain William H. McKittrick, 15 miles in law, twenty miles from this city. For six days the veteran soldier has been confined to his bed, but not until Friday night was it known that acute pneumonia was sapping the life out of the patient.

Kidney Trouble Caused Death.

Sunday morning Mt. Pleasant Riley passed away of kidney disease at his home, several miles from this city on the Husbands road. The body was taken out to the Sunny Slope cemetery yesterday and laid away. The deceased was 68 years of age and is survived by his son, Mr. D. H. Riley.

Arrange For Funeral.

This evening at 7:30 o'clock the James T. Walbert camp of Confederate Veterans will hold a special meeting at the City Hall police court room, for purpose of making arrangements for the funeral of the late Maj. Thomas E. Moss, who died in the Philippine islands, and whose remains will reach here the last of this week. This evening the veterans will prepare to attend the funeral in a body, while a committee will be named to meet the body at the Union depot and escort it to the Elks' Home on North Fifth street, where it will lay in state until buried.

Major Moss died while visiting his daughter, Mrs. Marie Moss Wheat, in the Philippine islands. This occurred over a year ago, and before his departure on the long voyage he told the members of the camp, that when death overtook him he wanted the Confederates to have full charge of his funeral services. To arrange to comply with his request the camp members gather tonight.

The services will be conducted at the Elks building with Rev. Calvin M. Thompson, of the First Baptist church, officiating. Although the major was an Elk, the old soldiers have charge of the ceremonies, according to the desire of the dead man, who warmly loved his comrades. A delegation of Elks will also meet the remains at the depot.

Mrs. Wheat, her husband and son, have arrived at Newport News, Va., with the remains, but they had to remain in quarantine for the usual ten days. Mrs. Wheat writes that she expects to get away from Newport News either Wednesday, Thursday or Friday of this week, just which she could not tell until the health officers permitted them to depart, the quarantine regulations being very strict regarding people coming into this country from foreign lands. When she learns the exact date they can start for Paducah she will telegraph the Confederate Veterans.

The body was brought back from the Philippines on a United States transport that came by way of the Mediterranean sea.

Former Paducahan.

Mr. Harry Duval died at Princeton yesterday. He was supervisor for the Nashville division bridges and buildings for the I. C., and formerly lived in Paducah. Today the body will be buried at Vine Grove, Ky., his former home.

Infant Passed Away.

Yesterday afternoon at Oak Grove cemetery there was buried the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher of Sixth and Adams streets. The child was born Sunday morning and died that evening.

FIRE IN THEATER CAUSES PANIC

Several Persons Injured in Evansville, Ind., in Fight to Escape.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 12.—Vernon Gammel, an electrician, was burned seriously and a number of women and children were injured and their clothes were torn off in a mad rush to get out of the Franklin street theater Sunday afternoon. The panic was caused by the accidental dropping of a hot carbon into a basket of celluloid films. Flames shot up and the curtains on the stage caught fire. Instantly there was a mad rush for the single exit from the theater, the crowd, screaming, struggling and fighting becoming packed in the aisles. The crush tore the double doors from their hinges. Several persons were injured so badly that they had to be carried to their homes. Miss Susan de Forest had a leg and an arm broken. Gammel, who was operating a moving picture machine, was taken to a hospital.

—Yesterday the body of Sylvester Wilson, colored, was brought here from Hopkinsville and buried. He died in the asylum there, having been sent eight months ago from Paducah, on account of lunacy. He ran a barber shop at 409 South Third street for many years.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Two Cars in Freight Train Derailed on Bridge.

Through a chain of fortunate circumstances a bad accident was narrowly averted yesterday afternoon on the big steel bridge, says the Cairo Telegram.

Two cars of a northbound Mobile & Ohio freight train passing over the structure at 4:40 were derailed on the bridge approach just over the Big Four crossing, hanging suspended some fifty feet above the ground below.

The drawheads in the cars at either end held the cars and kept them from toppling over and the train being stopped quickly, what would have been a bad accident was averted.

The accident caused a complete suspension of all traffic either way over the bridge for about four hours.

MUST HAVE DIMPLES.

WOMAN'S BEAUTY IS NOT COMPLETE WITHOUT THEM.

There Are Establishments That Make a Specialty of Providing This Now Fashionable Feature.

"We are having an unprecedented call for dimples," said the beauty maker according to the New York Sun. "There was a time when there was no demand at all for them, but now we are kept busy supplying them."

"Women flock into our establishment demanding dimples, and each has her own particular style. To the casual observer all dimples might seem alike, but there is really great variety in them."

"Of all dimples that on the chin is the most noticeable and beautiful. Once upon a time it was the popular belief that dimples were born. Nowadays we know that they are acquired."

"They are like French waves and false teeth. You can have them if you want them. To make a cleft chin is quite a difficult feat."

"You must cut into the flesh with a sharp knife until you have severed a muscle. When the chip heals there will be a little dent or scar, and this makes the dimple."

"A woman once came to me in great distress. She had met with an accident which had inflicted a jagged cut in her chin."

"My good looks are ruined for life," she gaped, as she sank into a chair. "I bound up her chin and assured her that she would be all right in a few days."

"You will be even better looking than before," I said to her.

"She smiled faintly and went away. Two weeks later she returned. The wound had healed and in its place there was a very becoming scar, which took the form of a dimple."

"I am delighted," said she, "for I am a thousand times better looking than I was before."

"It is the style now to have a dimpled, snore, beseeching look; and it is the fashion to look rather grave instead of arch. This gives the beauty makers a stunt to perform in the dimple line, but up to date there have been many successes and no casualties reported."

"In Paris they are making dimples by electricity. They take an electric instrument and press it into the flesh without, however, breaking the skin. Then they turn on the current."

"There is a mild shock. They repeat this again and again, always making the dent deeper, until after a time the flesh has formed a habit. There is a dimple in the chin."

"This is only useful for the chin, and it would hardly work in the case of the cheek, which is too hard to be treated in this way."

"Where cheek dimples are desired there is a more complicated process. We begin by replacing lost teeth."

"After you have lumped out the face you will discover that there are dimples in the cheeks. Make your cheeks plump and somehow there will appear the magic twinkling spots."

"There should be dimples on the hands as well as on the face. To be alluring hands must lie idly on your lap. They must be white and fat, and there must be a row of dimples along the knuckles."

"They look more youthful if there are no rings at all. Rings somehow make the hands look old. They are like finery and elaborate dress. They add to one's age."

"To be pretty you must have nice teeth. They must be white and even and there must be no gold visible. Then you must have a pair of very red lips."

"White lips mean a poor circulation and narrow lips mean a bad disposition and a habit of compressing the mouth. You must have a fine, smooth skin, which can be obtained by treating the skin every night with a good skin food, and you must have a pair of clear, soft eyes."

"The eyebrows must be nice. If one is to be good looking, and to make them beautiful one must treat them every night with an eyebrow grower. The Japanese have very nice eyebrows, but they devote a great deal of time to them."

"The face should be slightly oval shaped, something like an egg, with the small part of the egg at the chin. Look at your face and see if it is egg shaped."

"If it is round you must reduce it a little. If it is square you must massage along the lines of the chin to take away those square lines. If it is long and narrow you must plump it out."

"And don't forget that you must have dimples, for dimples are the style of this year, and you cannot be a pretty woman without them."

Tips in Department Stores

The thing is growing in New York, despite the discussion aroused by the new law aimed at purchasing agents. The latest class to demand tips are clerks in department stores. According to an experienced shopper, the woman who does not recognize and satisfy the itching palm of the girl who waits on her will obtain poor service in some stores. Akin to this is the store "graft" on which many clerks figure as a regular addition to their income. This is the change left over from purchases at odd prices, such as $1.48, 1.67, etc. Usually it only amounts to two or three cents, but very many persons give the seller $1.50 or $1.75 and go away without waiting for the change. This often amounts to a considerable sum in the course of a day. Sometimes it even amounts to "white money," as silver is called, and adds materially to the day's takings.

Although the first Christmas card was made in 1846, very few were sent till the year 1893. Then the fashion came in of sending cards the size of

RUIN THE PICTURES.

PEOPLE WHO "BUTT IN" WHEN CAMERA IS WORKING.

Scenes Carefully Arranged by Moving Picture Artists Are Disturbed and Rendered Useless.

"Our work is sometimes seriously interfered with by the buttinskis, and then again there are times when their slapping in helps us," said the manager of a moving picture concern, who himself frames up the incidents and supervises the taking of the pictures. "It is impossible to guard against the folks with the butting-in habit, for when they see anything unusual coming off on the street or in any public place their natural busybody instinct takes hold of them, and they're bound to nudge up and take a hand in the proceedings."

"Over in Trenton a few weeks ago I fixed up a horsewhipping scene. The first part of the set was easy enough to get. I had a scene in a restaurant, in which a pretty girl, seated at a table a little distance away from another table at which a frolicsome man with a homely wife is dining, falls to making goo-goo eyes at the man."

"The second scene, in which I arranged to have the horsewhipping take place, took place outside the restaurant. We'd got police permission to take the pictures, and I had two or three men stationed in front of the restaurant to keep the crowd back while the phony horsewhipping was in progress."

"When everything was all set and the machine was snapping away at the homely wife laying the lash across the face and shoulders of the flirtatious girl—the lash looked like rattan, but it was a phony, and didn't hurt at all—our troubles began."

"First a big vanguard of a man slammed in and grabbed my homely woman by her lash-wielding arm, bawling that he didn't believe in seeing no woman sting another woman an like that, and that queered one set of films. The machine had to be stopped while the big buttinski was being informed that the thing was only a tableau, and that he didn't belong to the picture."

"He took the gibe of the crowd sourly, at that, and looked to be in so much of a mind to kick our gear to pieces that I had to get a cop to walk him down the street."

"When we got all set again and the horsewhipping of the flirtatious girl was once more going on a scrawny hunched-faced woman, who had just joined the outer circle of the crowd, and who wasn't up to what was coming off, rushed into the scene with a shriek, grabbed my two acting women by the hair, and started in to roughhouse them both for their indecency in fighting on the street," as she yelled at them. The machine had to be stopped again."

"The incident as I had framed it up didn't call for anything like that. I had it arranged that after the whip-ping had proceeded for a space the guilty husband of the homely wife was to rush in and attempt to separate the two women, when his wife was to turn on him with the lash, causing him to skidoo down the street. The girl with the goo-goo eyes was to seize the whip from the other woman's hands and start in to get hunk for the cutting she'd received, the scene ending up that way."

DETHRONING OF ALCOHOL

Being Brought About by the Modern Spirit of Scientific Research.

Another potent factor in the dethroning of alcohol has been the spirit of scientific research of recent years, says an Open Letter, in Century. In the great laboratories scientists have been carefully studying the effects of alcoholic liquors upon the various organs of the body, and, although they differ in their conclusions upon some points, the result is that those physicians who have most closely followed these investigations have, almost or entirely, abjured alcoholics as a necessary part of their therapeutic outfit. These elaborate studies of alcohol have convinced many that the nourishing and strengthening properties formerly ascribed to alcoholics existed only in the imagination, and belong to the errors of an age which had no facilities for accurate observation. The food qualities of the grains and fruits, it is now believed by many authorities, are destroyed in the process of making alcoholic drinks. Even the stimulating qualities ascribed to alcohol are denied by many, who class it among the narcotics because of its depressant effect.

When Game Was Cheap in Kansas

Even as late as 1886 and 1887 venison was as cheap as beef in the fall the choicest cuts selling for 12 1/2 cents a pound, while wild turkeys could be had for 75 cents each when tame turkeys no larger sold for a dollar. Brant or wild geese were hard to get rid of, as no one liked their meat. There was little fishing, not nearly so good as now, and the fish were nearly all perch or cat. The fine herd of 200 head of deer in Uncle Joe Lewis' deer park came from a pair he caught in the early days and penned up in a pasture lot.—Anthony Republican.

CHRISTIAN CITIZENSHIP

TIMELY SUBJECTS UP FOR CONSIDERATION BY W. C. T. U. LADIES.

Gathering Proved One of Deep Interest All Who Attended.

(Contributed.)

The meeting of the W. C. T. U. last Thursday afternoon was devoted to the department of Christian citizenship.

An announcement of its purpose and aims issued by the national superintendent of this department contains these words:

"We hear much of America's needs, but greater than every other need is that of the righteousness that exalteth a nation."

The Christian women of the land, largely through the W. C. T. U., create ideals—ideals that are as practical as they are sound. The public conscience is only individual consciences in bulk.

The Christian citizenship department is persistently, insistently and intelligently bringing the public, especially the Christian public, to see and to feel that it is responsible, man by man and woman by woman, for the evils now protected by law, or tolerated without law.

"The drink curse, especially where English-speaking foreigners come to us for commerce or pleasure, is the greatest obstacle in the spread of the gospel, our missionaries say. Place upon the conscience of home Christians, particularly mission workers, the responsibility of this Christian nation pouring this soul-destroyer into all heathendom."

Gambling, the law says, is the playing of any game whatsoever for any sum of money or other property of value. The vice is as depraving as it is universal. Every state outlaws it. We must see that such laws are not evaded, and we will not rest in this essential crusade until parlor gambling takes flight with the rest of the black brood.

Blasphemy, polygamy, with or without the cloak of religion, the dispensary substitute for the former saloon, the non-enforcement of laws relating to purity and prohibition, the careless marriage and indiscriminate divorce, political corruption, civic bribery, and the low street fair, these and more come into our work.

Affirmatively, too, let us add our efforts in behalf of the establishment of juvenile courts and juvenile laws, child labor laws, the Consumers' league, and in short, do as Christ would do in exercising the rights and duties of a citizen."

The superintendent stated that she had arranged the exercises with special regard for local needs, and that there was great need of more light on the effects of alcohol on children. To meet this need Mrs. Emma Byrd read an article entitled "Alcohol and Nursing Mothers," in which the writer referred to the fact that nursing mothers are often advised to drink ale or beer to increase the secretion of milk, and the effect is similar to that produced by feeding cows salt to make them drink heavily to increase the flow of milk; and that while this increases the quantity of milk, the quality is decreased in proportion.

Nourishment for both mother and babe can come from food only and for this reason, good appetite and good digestion are both necessary. Alcohol, whether in beer, wine, whiskey, or any other form, is injurious to the stomach and hinders digestion, therefore doing harm to the mother instead of good.

Dr. Edmunds of London, England, who has made a specialty of diseases of children, says: "Infants nursed by mothers who drink beer are more likely to die of convulsions and bowel troubles while cutting teeth than children of total abstinence mothers."

Dr. Condi says: "The only drink of the nursing mother should be water or milk. All fermented and distilled liquors, as well as strong tea and coffee, should be strictly avoided."

Dr. William Hargreaves says: "Alcohol is not only useless but injurious. Sometimes a single glass of liquor taken by the mother will produce sickness and indigestion in the child for twenty-four hours afterward."

Dr. Bussey says: "The only rational way to be adopted by mothers to increase the supply of nutrition for the babe is to secure plenty of suitable, nutritious food. It is impossible that alcoholic beverage can add anything to the nutrition of either infant or mother."

Dr. W. F. Waugh of Chicago, editor of a medical journal, says: "When I commenced the practice of my profession I fully believed the nursing mother required wine or malt liquors to enable her to nurse her babe. Putting this idea to the test of practice, I found that the mother had a more regular supply of milk and of a better, but was fed as a nursing mother should be. Alcohol makes swill milk instead of the healthy secretion that is supplied by good food."

Mrs. Lulu Nance read an account of a brave Catholic priest who prevented a saloon from being opened in the vicinity of his church and his noble words on the occasion.

Mrs. Pearl Norvvel read a sketch of "An Up-to-Date Father," a spicy article by Nora Murray in the magazine Woman, for November "wherein despite the march of civilization, mere man is shown to be still necessary."

This was followed by the following selections from the same magazines: "Women everywhere are doing more than warming up 'left-overs' and taking out grease spots. Their housekeeping is no longer restricted to the four walls of their own home. Their love, their tenderness, their compassion for suffering, their passion for serving, their zeal for neatness and order are no longer confined to their own immediate families. These qualities have gone out to all humanity, and borne fruit in new laws and better institutions for the care and protection of children, for the correction of cruelties and abuses to women and girls, and for better municipal housekeeping."

"Woman suffrage is becoming respectable. Times have changed since Lucy Stone was rotten-egged on the platform, and since Susan B. Anthony and Elizabeth Cady Stanton were subjected to the whole range of persecution from ridicule to plain abuse."

The most interesting feature of the entire program was a graphic account by one of the members of practical work exemplifying the command "Be ye doers of the word and not hearers only." One of the agents of Fehr's brewery had taken it upon himself to paint an advertisement of his wares in glowing capitals, without as much as saying "By your leave," on her fence.

Although in a very conspicuous place, she bravely armed herself with a brush and pot of paint to efface the lurid letters. To her dismay before she had proceeded far she saw her paint was giving out while she had only succeeded in making the place more conspicuous than before.

Using the remainder of her paint, she wrote underneath the ad: "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink," and left it until another day, when she returned with a fresh supply of paint and blotted out the whole notorious concern. It is quite a matter of surprise that the brewing company would employ a man as advertising agent who had not yet learned that no member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union would allow a beer ad to be placed on her property, not even if the space were paid for. The union is most glad to record this as a typical illustration of the work of the department of Christian Citizenship.

The meeting next Thursday afternoon will be devoted to the department of legislation. Last Tuesday's quotation from "An Appeal to Filial Piety" should have read "where we send men to congress having three wives and to the penitentiary for having two."

The Country Newspapers.

(Press and Printer.)

It occurred to us this week as we ran over our forty or fifty exchanges, to note the moral tone of them. These papers are of all sizes and grades, from every variety of town, and are edited by practical men who are pretty well acquainted with the world, the flesh and the devil. In not one of them did we find a defense of immorality. In not one of them did we find a semblance of defense for whisky. In not one of them was there a trace of vulgarity, and none taught or justified dishonesty. Neither could we find a sneer at purity, at religion, at the better things of life. In many of them were bits of excellent advice, little homely sermons on temperance, fragility and industry. All of them loyal to home town, and advocated honest principles in government and individual. Wherever there was mention of the public schools it was in terms of praise. To be sure, here and there was some fun poked at shams, some scorn at pretense. But the note in every one of these two-score papers was for decency, progress, enlightenment, morality. And of these editors, we know many of them personally, and of all those we know not one is a drinking man, not one is a gambler, not one is a libertine. Most of them are well read, most of them good judges of people and events. A pretty decent lot they are; in fact, we doubt if any other profession can offer a higher—or even as high a showing. Besides all this, the country editor is proverbially liberal, free-hearted in every way. No stray printer goes away hungry if he has a quarter. No public subscription list ever passes him without his mite. He gives freely of time and space to the public welfare. This is not an effort to throw a bouquet at our contemporaries, but with Paul we believe every man should magnify his calling, and we are proud of ours.

Proudest Day of His Life.

Jim—What's the matter with Tommy? Has he fallen into a fortune? Billy—No; he casts his first vote tomorrow; he's just 21.—Detroit Free Press.

Singular Surgical Operation That Restored the Use of a Man's Leg.

Grafting the bone from a dog's leg onto the leg of a man, to replace some five inches of bone that had been removed, and so saving to the man his leg, was the remarkable surgical feat performed by a local surgeon. It was the first recorded case of grafting upon the human bone the bone of one of the lower animals, says the San Francisco Chronicle.

The patient, a Swede, 45 years old, had fallen about 12 feet to the pavement, causing a compound fracture of the right leg near the ankle. The fracture resisted treatment, and in the course of time five inches of bone were removed. It seemed that the only thing left was amputation. The surgeon determined to attempt to graft the bone from the foreleg of a dog to the sawed-off end of the leg bone of the man. A small black and tan dog was selected for the experiment, placed under ether, and his leg prepared. The ends of the bones of the man and the dog were united by silver wire, and the dog and man fastened rigidly together in a plaster cast. The report says:

"The man suffered very little pain or inconvenience except for two or three days, during which the dog was restless and would attempt to move. The more the dog would move the more pain was inflicted upon the man. The dog soon realized this, so that it was not necessary after the fourth day to give the dog morphine to keep him quiet. The dog and the man became very much attached to each other."

Five weeks later the bones had knitted firmly and the dog was removed by sawing off his leg. The other end of the new bone was united to the man's bone without difficulty. Six months after the union the thin bone from the dog's leg had grown and developed almost to the size of the original bone in the man's leg. The man walks with a cane, but can get along without it if necessary.

TRICK OF COLLEGE GIRL

Shoe Clerk Divulges the Scheme by Which She Gets Matinee Money.

"What's a fellow going to do about it, anyway?" exclaimed a Boston shoe clerk the other day, says the Shoe Retailer. "It beats me. Here comes in Miss College Maid, and she is as fascinating as she can be. She picks out a five-dollar pair of shoes as perfectly lovely; and 'won't we charge them up to pa?' which we certainly will do, because 'pa' has notified us that his credit is 'O. K.' and is at his daughter's disposal."

"But next day in comes Miss College Maid with her shoes in a box under her arm. She would 'really like to look at those $5.00 shoes,' and she finally buys them. 'And won't we give her the change back,' she says, with a smile that will tilt most men from their balance."

"Of course, if a man made such a proposition we'd call the police, but we're apt to bow to the Miss College Maid with the smile, and hand over the $1.50 to her, as if she had asked for only a pair of extra shoe strings. Then while Miss College Maid trots off to the matinee to spend our $1.50 we puzzle our heads as to whether we have been buncoed or whether we have buncoed 'dad,' although, to be sure, we charge it to his account."

"And if a fellow once falls a victim to the wiles of Miss College Maid he soon learns that she needs a new pair of shoes about every time a matinee idol comes along."

Volcano Creates Earthquake.

A remarkable example of the close connection of volcanoes and earthquakes was observed by the early Spanish settlers in San Salvador. When the water in the crater lake of Ilopango rose above a certain level earthquake shocks always followed. So they cut a channel to allow the escape of the water and to prevent its rising in the crater. And for 100 years there was no earthquake in that district. Then the precaution was neglected, the water rose in the crater and presently a violent earthquake shook the country. At the same time the lake was blown out by a volcanic eruption.

Japan's Chemical Works.

Japan has 840 factories wherein professional chemists are employed. Two of them employ over 500 workpeople, the others range from 30 up. In the 840 are included gas works, paper works, ceramic and lacquer works. Sugar factories and breweries are not included. Many of them are stock companies. Of these 75 produce pharmaceutical products, 35 illuminating oils, 49 matches, 50 indigo, four other colors, four gas and six incense. Japan's chemical industry employs 38,591 workmen. In the match factories there are five women operatives to each man. Some factories run 12 hours, but most of them only ten. Men's wages average 14 cents and women's ten cents a day.

Height in French Army.

Since the law of 1901 there has been no limit of height for a French soldier; dwarf or giant, all must serve. Before that time the limit was only five feet one inch. Yet the average height was not yet run down to that of Napoleon's "grande armee" in its last years and not long ago it was above that of the German army measured as a whole.

MRS. WORTHINGTON

BY E. E. KISER.

"Robert," said Mrs. Faddelwaite, "I—I—"

"What's the trouble," he asked.

"I hope you won't think I'm extravagant, and I know, it is so hard for you to scrape up money enough to pay the horrid bills that always come along about the first of the month, but I simply must have $20."

"Twenty—say, Mabel, what do you think I am—the son-in-law of some life insurance president? You might as well ask me for twenty million. Do you know that our expenses for last month were $63 more than my salary? If you are acquainted with anybody who can tell me how to make ends meet when things are going that way bring them around and I'll pay him well for his time. What do you want $20 for?"

"Oh, never mind, old Mr. Crosspatch. I'll get along without it some way. I know that I'm not worth half what I cost you, and—and I'm going to take up stenography or music or be a Christian Science healer or something, so that I will be able to earn money and—and not always be such an expense to you. It must be just terrible for a man to have to give up everything for a woman he doesn't love, when he might have so much if he had never married her, and—"

"There, little girl, what's the use of talking that way? You know I'd be the happiest man in the world if I could pile bundles of money at your feet every morning and give you the privilege of doing what you liked with it. But really, you know, I didn't expect to be called on for any more extras for a few weeks and had it all figured out so that I'd be just about able to start in even next month. Of course I can give you the money if you absolutely need it but—"

"Oh if there are to be any buts please don't say anything more about it. I appreciate your kindness, dear, and I know that you have a generous nature, and it must be awful selfish of me to leave you to practice all the self-denial. Never mind, I'll get along without it. I will show you that I can be brave, even if I am merely a useless expense to you."

"Hurrah! Now it's so pleasant for me to go away to work and keep hinking all day of our joyful parting. Just imagine me whistling gayly at my desk as I remember that little old $20 and the look you gave me as you told me you'd get along without it. In my mind's eye I can see myself calmly smoking my cigar after lunch and thinking, as I watch the rings curl upward, of you here, radiantly happy because of your noble sacrifice. Oh, yes! But come on, dear, let's not quarrel over a little money. Of course you can have it. What am I earning money for if it isn't to give you happiness? And please don't ask any more about doing things for the purpose of earning cash yourself. You earn it as it is. Your love is worth a thousand times what—"

"Dearest," she cried, pulling his face down to hers, "forgive me for saying what I did. You know I appreciate your generosity, don't you? Ah, if you could only know how long the hours seem when you are not with me! And I wouldn't love or admire you more than I do if you were so rich that you could buy everything John D. has and turn him out of house and home. Have you the money with you or shall I have to set a check cashed?"

"Here it is. What are you going to say?"

"Why, you see, I heard from Miss Westcott, the dressmaker, yesterday, and she can come to me three days this week, so I shall have to get something for her to make up."

"But I thought you said the other day that you had all the clothes you were going to need for awhile?"

"Yes, I have, only Miss Westcott has these three days that she can give me."

"I can't see why you should feel that you are obliged to hire her simply because she has three days for which she isn't engaged."

"I'm not, you dear old goose, but you see, if I don't take her Mrs. Worthington, who is crazy to get her, will have her over there and find out about all the things I've had remade and the lace remnants and—and—everything, you know."

"Well, but why should you care, as long as your clothes are well and look like and are just as good as if they had cost five or six times as much as they did?"

"Oh, dear!" she cried, as she saw her clutching the money, after a long pause. "I wonder how many being so stupid, ever manage to get along at all!"—Chicago Record-Herald.

Must Obey Orders.

As an illustration of carrying military discipline too far, this story is told by a soldier who, during a recent campaign was seized with a sudden ardor about hygiene. He ordered that all the men change their shirts at once. This order was duly carried out, except in the case of one company, where the privates' wardrobes had been sadly depleted. The captain of this company informed the colonel that none of his men could change their shirts, since they had only one apiece. The colonel hesitated a moment, then said, firmly: "Orders must be obeyed. Let the men change shirts with each other."—Boston Herald.

"Learn to mix." "Learn to mix" is the advice given to his pupils by Prof. Frank J. Miller of the University of Chicago. Most young gentlemen nowadays do learn to mix, but the trouble is that their mixing too often is done with drinks.

TO SECURE SEWER EXPERT

COUNCIL RATIFIED THE ACTION OF THE ALDERMANIC BOARD.

Police and Fire Commissioners Had Nothing Before Them Last Night For Consideration.

Last evening the council held a special session at the City Hall and concurred in the aldermanic action in ordering City Engineer Washington and the sewerage committee of the legislative boards to immediately employ Civil Engineer Alvord of Chicago to come here and get up the plans and specifications for sanitary and storm sewerage district No. 3 which will be laid with sewer mains next spring. The district includes that portion of the city between Thirtieth street and the city limits on the west, Adams street on the south, and to several blocks beyond Trimble street on the North.

The committee will at once write to the Chicago expert to come or send his men here to run their levels and get up everything necessary for the plans, which will be completed by the first of next year, if possible. The contract will then be let and things gotten into shape so the work can be started off immediately upon arrival of favorable weather.

Commissioners Met.

The police and fire commissioners held their monthly session last evening at the City Hall, but there was nothing before them for transaction, so after reading and adopting the minutes of the October session, the commissioners adjourned.

ENDLESS TORTURE DECRIED BY PASTOR

Rev. Dr. Carter Insists Presbyterians Must Revise Their Confession.

New York, Nov. 12.—"The doctrine on endless punishment for the wicked must be eliminated from the Westminster confession of faith of the Presbyterian church. This terrible doctrine that pictures God as a merciless being, must come to an issue. I am certain that an issue will be made of it in the Presbyterian general assembly."

Thus did the Rev. Samuel Carter, the venerable Presbyterian divine who had so rigorously condemned the confession of faith on his return from Europe, again return to the charge last night, when a reporter called on him.

There is no doubt that Dr. Carter regards the elimination of this doctrine of endless punishment from the Presbyterian creed as a special charge a duty that he must face. He speaks of it as his work.

"I am not alone in this view that endless punishment is not consistent with the divine being in this world," he said, "It pictures the All Father as a being bent on merciless punishment for the children of men who do not accept him. It is to be torment that is unending. Can the human mind conceive of a more horrible fate? Has the very worst, most fiendish, human punishment ever meted out by man ever approached such a punishment as this? And yet this is the punishment that the Westminster confession of faith declares God's will decrees.

"I have preached in the Presbyterian church for forty years. For years this doctrine has appealed to me as the most inconsistent that was ever put forth by a Christian church. I cannot reconcile it with the divine, the loving, ever pitiful character of the Master. His desire is for our good, not for our ill. He yearns to aid us, not to punish us. Yet this doctrine of terror is put forth."

NEW ROOM IS READY

MISS BRYANT OF MEMPHIS TAKES CHARGE OF NEW SCHOOL ROOM.

Number of Pupils of Miss Mae Ellis' Class Received 100 in Department Last Month.

Yesterday the new room was opened at the Washington school building on West Broadway, and Miss Bryant of Memphis, placed in charge. It is the room composed of the more advanced scholars of the B-1st grade, and starts off with an attendance of about 40 children. Miss Bryant is a niece of Miss Lillie Burdine, another instructor of the public schools, and comes well recommended for the position.

Supt. Lieb has gotten his office furnishings, records, etc., moved out of the first floor room to the new basement office. As yet the new room has not been completed in the McKinley building in Mechanicsburg, but will be by the last of this week, the superintendent expects. By then the teacher to occupy this additional room will have been decided on. The plasterers have not yet finished their part of the work there.

Special Mention.

The following pupils got 100 per cent. in department the past scholastic month in the room of Miss Mae Ellis who teaches the sixth grade at the Franklin building: Ross Summers, Clyde Chittenden, Daisy Ford, Lila Bethel, Butler Starks, Mabel Schmuckl, Mae Ola Barnett, Mable Saltzger and Ruth Ruth Summers.

The Masons and the Whisky Traffic.
The papers over the land are commenting on the fact that the Grand Lodge of Masons of Kentucky, by a vote of 418 to 32 has forbidden subordinate lodges to receive distillers or liquor dealers after this date. The only opposition the 32 made was postponement. They could not face their brothers in an open plea for the whisky dealers.

And since that action the Supreme Lodge of the Knights of Pythias has excluded all liquor dealers, wholesale, retail and hotel sellers included. It excluded professional gamblers as well. Surely it is time for the last church in the land to turn the whisky dealer out.—Baptist Argus.
